Senior Community Service Employment Program
PROGRAM ELEMENTS

RI Department of Labor and Training
The Senior Community Service Employment Program (SCSEP) is a service and work-based program for low-income individuals aged 55 and older. DLT administers the program which includes recruitment and outreach, eligibility screening, enrollment assessment, Individual Employment Plans, follow-up, work site placement, monitoring and enrollee recertification. Through SCSEP, enrollees are placed at Host Agency sites for up to 30 hours per week and are compensated with wages commensurate with their occupation. Host Agency sites include faith-based organizations, senior centers, community action programs and community-based organizations. These agencies prepare and train participants for future unsubsidized employment. The program is a bridge leading to unsubsidized employment and works to reintegrate participants into the workforce.

Eligible SCSEP applicants must reside in Rhode Island, be unemployed at the time of application and be a member of a family with an income not more than 125 percent of federal poverty guidelines. Priority is given to applicants over the age of 60, veterans and spouses of veterans. Preference is given to limited English-speaking, minority applicants.
